- 9 Father's day Barbeque
- 16 MacGregor SS Big Band Visiting
- 16 P&C Meeting

ATTACHMENTS

Absence Letters – If required

DEAR PARENTS

I know that I am repeating myself, but I can't emphasise enough (at the moment) that there is a lot of illness going around. We have witnessed, 'gastro', flu and laryngitis in recent days. I appreciate your efforts to make sure that your children are coming to school – just be aware that these bugs are infecting our children.

RULE OF THE WEEK

Be Responsible – Keep your desk tidy

CERTIFICATES

These students received a certificate this week:

Maths-Maya
Reading-Caitlyn
Good Work-Kailee
Working Well-Talia

The following students were awarded Casey Certificates during the past week:

CASEY Level One
Ethan
CASEY Level Two
Blake T	Aiesha

HEAD LICE

Head lice have again been detected in some classes.

This (natural) nit spray is working for some families:
5 drops each of Rosemary, Eucalyptus, Tea Tree and Lavender oils in a spray bottle with water.
Saturate hair every morning, comb through.

Or

Use a cheap, thick, hair conditioner daily, for at least week (or a couple of days after there is no more evidence of eggs)

FATHER'S DAY BARBEQUE

You're invited to a Father's Day barbeque on Monday September 9 at 2pm at the school library.

For catering, please RSVP to Chappy Krystal on 0408 877 724 by Friday September 6.
